

RULE 111

TIME LIMITS ON PLEA AGREEMENTS

Attorneys for defendants are expected to inform the Court as promptly as possible that a defendant will request a change of plea. It is expected that, except for extraordinary circumstances, notification will be given to the Court not less than two (2) business days prior to commencement of the trial, in order to avoid the unnecessary expense of convening a jury panel.